ORDER SHEET NO.5 |

(Dated: 22nd December 2015)

(Application No.59 of 2015)

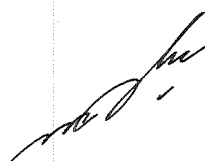

1. NSEL has informed that the office of the Collector and District Magistrate, City, by its order dated 19.12.2015, has granted permission for inspection of goods.

2. The Committee is also informed that the MPID Court, vide its order dated 17th December 2015, has permitted I.O. or any of its representatives to take inspection and sample for the purpose of carrying out necessary tests and simultaneously undertake process of sale. In this view of the matter, now, there is no impediment in taking sample and proceeding with the examination of material by the Competent Authority. So the parties are free to carry out necessary inspection and get the material tested in a qualified Govt. Laboratory.

3. In this view of the matter, the Application needs to be considered only after receipt of the inspection and test report. The Competent Authority is expected to fix the date of inspection and to submit a report to this Committee within four weeks from today.
